Welcome to Advanced Transformations!

A Journey into High-Level Voice, Narration, Modals & Prepositional Architecture

Dear Teachers, Parents, and Early Educators,

Welcome to the foundational step of reading and syntactic success at the Kulsum Institute of Education. Language mastery is not just about identifying letters or basic words on a page—it is about unlocking the secret architectural codes of language through transformational syntax.

This module, Advanced Syntax Transformations, is meticulously crafted to guide advanced learners through the complete timeline and perspectives of the English language. Moving far beyond pure rote memorization, this book empowers scholars to decode, invert, and report human thought with effortless literary poise:

- Modal Verbs: Command ability (Can/Could), obligation (Must/Should/Ought to), and unfulfilled past regrets with Modal Perfects (Should have, Could have, Must have).
- Articles & Prepositions: Master acoustic vowel sound gateways (A vs. An with silent H), geographic canons for 'THE', and fixed idiomatic collocations (good at, fond of, senior to).
- Active & Passive Voice Suite: Command focus inversions across all tenses, modal auxiliaries (can/should/must be done), authoritative commands (Let + be + V3), and interrogatives (Who → By Whom).
- Direct & Indirect Speech Architecture: Master the SON pronoun matrix, tense stepback rules, nearness-to-distance conversions, and reported dialogue across Assertive, Interrogative (If/Wh-), Imperative (To-Infinitive), and Exclamatory/Optative moods.
- Expand Real-World Language: Connect newly transformed syntax directly to everyday knowledge through highly visual, clean diagram pages.

Aligned with our core vision to Learn • Grow • Succeed, this 19-chapter curriculum builds a clear, step-by-step pathway toward absolute linguistic fluency. Let us embark on this beautiful adventure of language building together!

With warm regards,

The Faculty of Advanced English Syntax & Linguistics

Modal Verbs: Ability & Permission

Can, Could, May, and Might in Action

1 The Definition & Transformation Rule

Modal auxiliary verbs express the mood, ability, capacity, and permission of an action without changing form (-s, -ed, -ing)! CAN denotes physical or mental ability in the present (I can solve this calculus) and informal permission (Can I borrow your pen?). COULD denotes past ability (She could run fast in school) and polite present requests (Could you assist me?). MAY denotes formal permission (May I come in, Professor?) and possibility (It may rain today). MIGHT denotes weaker, remote possibility (He might arrive late due to fog).

KULSUM INSTITUTE TRANSFORMATION PRO-TIP:

"The Permission Ladder: Use 'CAN' with friends and peers, 'COULD' for polite everyday requests, and 'MAY' for formal academic, legal, and classroom respect!"

2 Transformation Vault: Comprehensive Models

PRESENT ABILITY (CAN)

can solve calculus can speak English can swim across can code software can play violin
can analyze specimens

PAST ABILITY (COULD)

could run five miles could read at age four could speak French could climb trees
could memorize poems could lift heavy weight

FORMAL PERMISSION (MAY)

May I enter the hall?
May I ask a question?
May we begin the exam?
May I submit the paper?
May I take your leave?
May we review the files?

REMOTE POSSIBILITY (MIGHT)

might rain tonight might visit Kanpur might win the trophy might join our team
might be delayed
might solve the mystery

3 Contextual Practice Sentences & Models

1. Present Ability: "Our undergraduate scholars can analyze microscopic botanical specimens with high precision."
2. Polite Request: "Excuse me, Professor Verma, could you please explain the plant taxonomy classification once more?"
3. Formal Permission: " May I present my research findings before the academic council this morning?"
4. Remote Possibility: "The botanical field expedition might be postponed if the Himalayan weather worsens."

EXERCISE A Fill in the Missing Transformation Keys (Write in the Blank)

1. Formal classroom permission: '..... I enter the laboratory, Professor?' (May / Can)
2. Present intellectual capability: 'She solve complex botanical equations easily.' (can / may)
3. Past ability: 'In her youth, grandmother walk ten kilometers every dawn.' (could / can)
4. Remote weather possibility: 'Look at those distant grey clouds; it rain tonight.' (might / must)

EXERCISE B Match the Term to its Syntactic Law

CAN		Present physical capacity or mental competence
COULD		Past ability or courtly polite present inquiry
MAY		Formal academic permission or standard likelihood
MIGHT		Remote, tentative, or hypothetical possibility

EXERCISE C Circle the Odd One Out / Error Identification

1. can solve can read can analyze cans solve [ODD Modals never take -s]
2. May I enter? May I ask? May I speak? May he entered? [ODD Modals take V1 base]
3. could run could sing could paint could ran [ODD Modals never take V2]

SECTION 5: VISUAL VOCABULARY & REAL-WORLD MAPPING

3. Respectful Request?

Classroom / Senior → MAY

4.

Remote Chance?

Tentative likelihood → MIGHT

Modal Verbs: Obligation, Duty & Advice

Must, Should, Ought to, and Have to in Practice

1 The Definition & Transformation Rule

Expressing duty and counsel requires clear modal distinction! MUST denotes strong internal obligation, urgent necessity, or sovereign law (Citizens must obey the constitution). HAVE TO denotes external obligation imposed by outside rules, deadlines, or employers (I have to reach office by 9 AM). SHOULD offers benevolent moral advice, wise counsel, or sensible suggestion (You should read books daily). OUGHT TO emphasizes moral, ethical, or patriotic duty (We ought to respect our national heritage).

KULSUM INSTITUTE TRANSFORMATION PRO-TIP:

"Must vs. Have to: 'MUST' comes from inside your personal conscience (I must study tonight to achieve distinction). 'HAVE TO' comes from outside rules (I have to wear a lab coat because university bylaws require it)!"

2 Transformation Vault: Comprehensive Models

SOVEREIGN LAW (MUST)

must obey the law
must wear helmet
must tell the truth must protect life
must pay taxes must stop at red

EXTERNAL RULE (HAVE TO)

have to punch card
has to submit thesis have to wear uniform have to renew license had to pay fine
will have to attend

WISE ADVICE (SHOULD)

should exercise daily should eat clean food should sleep 8 hours should revise notes
should drink water
should be courteous

MORAL DUTY (OUGHT TO)

ought to respect elders ought to serve nation ought to help the poor
ought to plant trees
ought to protect fauna ought to speak truth

3 Contextual Practice Sentences & Models

1. Sovereign Obligation: "Motorcyclists must wear certified safety helmets to protect against fatal trauma."
2. External Necessity: "Because laboratory safety rules are strict, scholars have to wear protective eye goggles."
3. Healthy Counsel: "To maintain high cognitive vitality, every student should maintain consistent sleep habits."
4. Ethical Duty: "As educated citizens of India, we ought to preserve our rich botanical biodiversity."

EXERCISE A Fill in the Missing Transformation Keys (Write in the Blank)

- Unbreakable safety law: 'Motorists halt when the traffic signal turns red.' (must / should)
- Benevolent health advice: 'You consume green leafy vegetables and drink water.' (should / must)
- Moral patriotic duty: 'We to honor our national martyrs and flag.' (ought / should)
- External organizational rule: 'Employees to swipe their biometric cards daily.' (have / must)

EXERCISE B Match the Term to its Syntactic LawMUST*HAVE TO*SHOULD*OUGHT TO

Inviolable law, categorical imperative, or personal conviction

Obligation compelled by external rules, employer, or deadlines

Benevolent suggestion, sensible advice, or recommended action

Moral, ethical, or spiritual duty followed by to-infinitive

EXERCISE C Circle the Odd One Out / Error Identification

- must obey must stop must protect must to obey [ODD 'Must' never takes 'to']
- should study should sleep should revise should to study [ODD 'Should' never takes 'to']
- ought to help ought to respect ought to serve ought help [ODD 'Ought' demands 'to']

SECTION 5: VISUAL VOCABULARY & REAL-WORLD MAPPING

Chapter 2 Visual Gallery: Real-World Objects & Conceptual Mapping

Mind-to-Voice Transformation Highway: The Obligation Spectrum

1. Legal / Inviolable?
Must (Internal conviction / Sovereign law)

2. External Bylaw / Job?
Have to (Compelled by outside authority)

3. Sensible Advice?
Should (Wise, friendly recommendation)

4. Ethical & Moral?
Ought to (Spiritual & societal duty)

Probability & Modal Perfects

Will, Would, Should Have, Could Have & Must Have

1 The Definition & Transformation Rule

Project certainty, past possibilities, and hypothetical regrets! WILL denotes firm intention and future certainty (She will achieve first rank). WOULD denotes past habitual routine (He would read for hours under the banyan tree) or polite offers (Would you like a cup of tea?). MODAL PERFECTS (Modal + HAVE + V3) evaluate unfulfilled past events: SHOULD HAVE + V3 (unfulfilled moral regret: You should have studied earlier); COULD HAVE + V3 (unrealized past capability: He could have won the match); MUST HAVE + V3 (near-certain past deduction: The ground is wet; it must have rained).

KULSUM INSTITUTE TRANSFORMATION PRO-TIP:

"The Modal Perfect Key: Whenever you evaluate a past deed with 'have + V3', you are reflecting on history! 'Should have done' = it didn't happen, and you regret it!"

2 Transformation Vault: Comprehensive Models

CERTAINTY & HABIT

will succeed

will conquer

would sit for hours

would always help

Would you like tea?

Would you mind?

REGRET (SHOULD HAVE)

should have studied

should have listened

should have departed

should have locked

should have verified

should have saved

LOST CHANCE (COULD HAVE)

could have won

could have scored

could have reached

could have helped

could have caught

could have solved

DEDUCTION (MUST HAVE)

must have rained

must have left

must have arrived

must have seen

must have forgotten

must have known

3 Contextual Practice Sentences & Models

1. Firm Future Intention: "With unflagging focus, Mantasha will achieve academic distinction in her botanical exams."
2. Past Regret: "The student realized too late that he should have revised the taxonomy charts earlier."
3. Unrealized Ability: "With five more minutes, our debate team could have clinched the state championship."
4. Logical Past Deduction: "The laboratory floor is freshly waxed and sparkling; the cleaners must have sanitized it at dawn."

EXERCISE A Fill in the Missing Transformation Keys (Write in the Blank)

- Unfulfilled past regret: 'You have started your exam revision earlier.' (should / must)
- Past logical deduction: 'The lights are out; the professor have departed.' (must / could)
- Courteous hospitality offer: '..... you like a warm cup of cardamom tea?' (Would / May)
- Unrealized past capacity: 'He had the skill; he have solved that riddle easily.' (could / should)

EXERCISE B Match the Term to its Syntactic Law

SHOULD HAVE + V3

COULD HAVE + V3

MUST HAVE + V3

WOULD YOU LIKE...?

Past moral regret over an action that was neglected

Past capability that was possible but remained unexecuted

High-confidence logical deduction about past finished event

Courteous, elegant formal offer of hospitality

EXERCISE C Circle the Odd One Out / Error Identification

- should have done could have won must have seen

1. should had done [ODD 'Have' is mandatory after modal]
- would sit would play would read would to sit [ODD 'Would' never takes 'to']

2. would to sit [ODD 'Would' never takes 'to']
- must have rained must have known must have left

3. must has rained [ODD 'Has' is ungrammatical after modal]

Mind-to-Voice Transformation Highway: The Modal Perfect Matrix

1. Past Regret / Neglect?
SHOULD HAVE + V3
(Ought to have done)

2. Past Unused Ability?
COULD HAVE + V3 (Had
the power, didn't do it)

3. Logical Past Deduction?
MUST HAVE + V3 (99%
certain it happened)

4. Future Intention / Politeness?
WILL (Firm goal) |
WOULD (Polite

Indefinite Articles: A vs. An

Phonetic Sound Gateways & Nuanced Acoustic Rules

1 The Definition & Transformation Rule

Indefinite articles introduce non-specific singular countable nouns! Use A before spoken consonant sounds (/k/, /b/, /j/, /w/). Use AN before spoken vowel sounds (/æ/, /ɛ/, /ɪ/, /ɒ/, /ʌ/).

The spoken initial sound determines the article, not the alphabet letter !

KULSUM INSTITUTE TRANSFORMATION PRO-TIP:

"The Acoustic Ear Test: Say the word aloud! In 'an hour', the H is silent, leaving the open vowel sound /aʊ/ → use 'AN'. In 'a university', the U sounds like consonant /j/ ('yu') → use 'A!'."

2 Transformation Vault: Comprehensive Models

STANDARD 'A' (CONSONANT)

a doctor
a book a horse a castle a pilot
a bridge

STANDARD 'AN' (VOWEL)

an apple an elephant an igloo an orange an umbrella
an astronaut

TRICKY 'AN' (SILENT H)

an hour
an honest man
an heir an honor
an honorable deed
an hourly rate

TRICKY 'A' (CONSONANT SOUND)

a university (yu-)
a European (yu-)
a unicorn (yu-)
a useful tool
a one-way street (w-) a one-rupee coin

3 Contextual Practice Sentences & Models

- "An honest merchant waited for an hour beside a university gate."
- "Neil Armstrong was an American astronaut who walked upon a distant lunar terrain."
- "The traveler found a one-rupee coin inside an ancient earthen pot."
- "It is an extraordinary honor to receive a scholarship from the faculty."

SECTION 4: ACTIVE PRACTICE WORKSHEET • CHAPTER 4

Score: ★★★★★

EXERCISE A Fill in the Missing Transformation Keys (Write in the Blank)

1. Preceding silent H: 'We completed the entire examination within hour.' (a / an)
2. Preceding consonant sound /j/: 'Dr. Sen is a professor at European university.' (a / an)
3. Preceding /w/ sound: 'The traffic was redirected down one-way street.' (a / an)
4. Preceding vowel sound: 'The child peeled orange after lunch.' (a / an)

EXERCISE B Match the Term to its Syntactic Law

AN H O N E S T M A N

A U N I V E R S I T Y

A O N E - W A Y R O A D

A N U M B R E L L A

Silent H exposes vowel sound → takes 'AN'

Begins with spoken consonant /j/ → takes 'A'

Spoken with consonant /w/ sound → takes 'A'

Spoken with short vowel /ʌ/ → takes 'AN'

EXERCISE C Circle the Odd One Out / Error Identification

1. a book a doctor a castle an hour [ODD Takes 'An']
2. an apple an eagle an honest boy a university [ODD Takes 'A']
3. a European a uniform a unicorn an umbrella [ODD Takes 'An']

SECTION 5: VISUAL VOCABULARY & REAL-WORLD MAPPING

Chapter 4 Visual Gallery: Real-World Objects & Conceptual Mapping

Hourglass

Silent H 'An'

Elapsed hour measured by sand /aʊər/.

University

Consonant 'A'

Academy pronounced with consonant /j/.

Astronaut

Vowel 'An'

Cosmic explorer with vowel sound /æ/.

Consonant 'A'

Currency coin pronounced with /w/ sound.

Unicorn

Consonant 'A'

Mythical horned steed starting with /j/.

Apple

Vowel 'An'

Orchard fruit beginning with /æ/.

Castle

Consonant 'A'

Stone fortress beginning with /k/.

Honor

Silent H 'An'

Noble badge of virtue starting with /ɒ/.

Mind-to-Voice Transformation Highway: The Indefinite Phonetic Filter

1. Speak the Noun
Hear initial acoustic wave

2. Open Vowel Sound?
/æ/, /ɛ/, /ɪ/, /ɒ/, /ʌ/ → AN

3. Consonant Sound?
Includes /j/ in 'uni' & /w/ in 'one' → A

4. Article Crowned!
Acoustic Harmony!

The Definite Article: 'The'

Universal Entities, Geographic Canons & Superlatives

1 The Definition & Transformation Rule

The definite article THE points to specific, unique, or previously referenced nouns! Use 'The' with singular celestial entities (the sun, the moon), mountain ranges (the Himalayas), holy rivers (the Ganga), oceans (the Pacific), and superlative degrees (the tallest, the best)!

KULSUM INSTITUTE TRANSFORMATION PRO-TIP:

"The Specific Identifier: Use 'THE' when both the speaker and the listener know the exact entity being talked about: 'Shut THE door' (the specific door of this room)!"

2 Transformation Vault: Comprehensive Models

CELESTIAL & UNIQUE

the sun
the moon

Pointing to the north, the south, the east.

Mind-to-Voice Transformation Highway: The Definite Article Gateway

1. Is it Unique / Celestial?
Sun, Moon, Sky → THE

2. Range or Waterway?
Himalayas / Ganga → THE

3. Superlative Degree?
Best, Tallest, First → THE

4. Definite Crown Affixed!
Specific Identification!

The Zero Article: Omission Rules

Languages, Sports, Meals, Abstract Virtues & Single Peaks

1 The Definition & Transformation Rule

Articles are not welcome everywhere! Zero Article means strictly omitting A, An, and The. Never use articles before: 1. Languages (English, Hindi), 2. Sports (cricket, chess), 3. Meals (breakfast, dinner), 4. Abstract Virtues (honesty, courage), and 5. Individual Mountain Peaks (Mount Everest)!

KULSUM INSTITUTE TRANSFORMATION PRO-TIP:

"Peak vs. Range: Mountain RANGES take 'The' (The Himalayas, The Alps). Individual PEAKS take NO article (Mount Everest, Mount Fuji, K2)!"

2 Transformation Vault: Comprehensive Models

LANGUAGES (NO ARTICLE)

speak English

3. Is it a Daily Meal?
Breakfast, Dinner → ZERO Article

4. Single Peak or Virtue?
Mount Everest / Honesty → ZERO Article

Prepositions: Place & Position

In, On, At, Over, Under, Behind, Between & Among

1 The Definition & Transformation Rule

Prepositions of Place chart the exact physical coordinate of a noun in space! Use AT for a specific pinpoint (at the door, at the bus stop). Use ON for contact with a surface (on the desk, on the wall). Use IN for an enclosed three-dimensional volume or area (in the room, in Delhi). Use BETWEEN for two entities, and AMONG for three or more!

KULSUM INSTITUTE TRANSFORMATION PRO-TIP:

"Between vs. Among: Divide sweets BETWEEN two brothers (2 entities). Distribute sweets AMONG all forty students (3+ entities)!"

2 Transformation Vault: Comprehensive Models

AT (SPECIFIC POINT)

at the door
at the bus stop at the desk
at the crossroads
at home

Prepositions: Time & Duration

At (Clock), On (Days), In (Years), Since (Point) & For (Duration)

1 The Definition & Transformation Rule

Prepositions of Time govern the chronological clock! Use AT for precise clock hours (at 5 PM, at noon). Use ON for calendar days and specific dates (on Monday, on 15th August). Use IN for longer intervals like months, years, and seasons (in July, in 2026, in winter). Use SINCE for exact starting points, and FOR for spans of duration!

KULSUM INSTITUTE TRANSFORMATION PRO-TIP:

"The Time Pyramid: Precision = AT (at 8 AM). Days & Dates = ON (on Friday, on Diwali). Months & Years = IN (in December, in 2026)!"

Prepositions: Motion & Direction

Into, Onto, Across, Through, Towards, Along & Off

1 The Definition & Transformation Rule

Prepositions of Motion depict dynamic trajectories! INTO indicates crossing an external boundary into an interior (jumped into the water). ONTO indicates dynamic movement onto a surface (climbed onto the roof). THROUGH indicates traveling within an enclosed channel (through the tunnel). ACROSS indicates traversing from one side to the opposite (swam across the river)!

KULSUM INSTITUTE TRANSFORMATION PRO-TIP:

Phrasal & Fixed Prepositions

Complex Prepositional Phrases & Dependent Collocations

1 The Definition & Transformation Rule

Prepositions often assemble into multi-word units or link inextricably with specific adjectives and verbs! Phrasal Prepositions: in front of, on behalf of, in spite of, according to, because of. Fixed Collocations: good at (math), fond of (reading), senior to (never than), depend on, congratulate on!

KULSUM INSTITUTE TRANSFORMATION PRO-TIP:

Voice Foundations: Subject-Object Swap

Focus Inversion, The Passive Agent & Universal BE + V3 Formula

1 The Definition & Transformation Rule

Voice alters the spotlight of the sentence! In Active Voice, the subject actively PERFORMS the deed (The chef baked the cake). In Passive Voice, the subject RECEIVES the deed (The cake was baked by the chef). The Object becomes the new Subject, the verb adopts a form of BE + Past Participle (V3), and the original actor is introduced with 'BY'!

KULSUM INSTITUTE TRANSFORMATION PRO-TIP:

"The 3-Step Dance: 1. Swap Subject and Object! 2. Insert the matching tense form of BE! 3. Turn the main verb into V3 (always V3, without exception, in every passive sentence)!"

2 Transformation Vault: Comprehensive Models

The Tense Shift Matrix & Universal Truths

Stepping Back in Time: Present to Past, Past to Past Perfect

1 The Definition & Transformation Rule

When the reporting verb is in the Past tense (said, told), the tense inside the reported speech steps one stage backward into the past ! Present Simple → Past Simple; Present Continuous → Past Continuous; Present Perfect → Past Perfect; Simple Past → Past Perfect! EXCEPTION: Universal Truths, scientific facts, and proverbs NEVER CHANGE TENSE !

KULSUM INSTITUTE TRANSFORMATION PRO-TIP:

"The Universal Truth Immunity: If the statement is an eternal scientific or geographic fact ('The sun rises in the east'), DO NOT change the tense: 'The teacher said that the sun RISES (not rose) in the east'!"

2 Transformation Vault: Comprehensive Models

PRESENT → PAST SHIFTS

V1 → V2 (writes → wrote) is/am/are → was/were has/have → had has been → had been do/does → did can → could / may → might

PAST → PAST PERFECT

V2 → had + V3 (wrote → had written) was/were → had been did not → had not + V3
went → had gone
saw → had seen
played → had played

FUTURE MODAL SHIFTS

will → would shall → should / would can → could may → might must → had to / must will be → would be

EXERCISE B Match the Term to its Syntactic Law

PRESENT → PAST

PAST INDEF. → PAST PERF.

WILL → WOULD

UNIVERSAL TRUTH

Direct Present tenses step backward into matching Past tenses

Simple Past (V2) steps deeper into Past Perfect (had + V3)

Modal future auxiliary shifts to reported modal would

Scientific and eternal facts retain Present Tense untouched

EXERCISE C Circle the Odd One Out / Error Identification

wrote → had written

went → had gone

played → had played

1. ate → was eaten [ODD Voice confusion]

2. is → was are → were has → had revolves → revolved [ODD Universal truth error]

Pronoun & Distance Shifts in Narration

The SON Formula & Words of Proximity Becoming Distant

1 The Definition & Transformation Rule

When reporting words spoken at another time and place, proximity shifts into distance! The SON Formula governs pronouns: 1st Person (I/We) changes according to Subject; 2nd Person (You) changes according to Object; 3rd Person (He/She/They) has NO CHANGE! Words of nearness change to distance (this → that, today → that day, tomorrow → the next day).

KULSUM INSTITUTE TRANSFORMATION PRO-TIP:

"The SON Formula Decoder: 1 = S (Subject), 2 = O (Object), 3 = N (No Change). Pronoun shifts made effortless!"

2 Transformation Vault: Comprehensive Models

THE SON PRONOUN CODE

1st Person (I, We)
→ Changes per Subject

2nd Person (You)
→ Changes per Object

3rd Person (He, She, It, They)
→ NO CHANGE (N)

DISTANCE SHIFTS (NEAR → FAR)

this → that these → those

here → there

now → then

ago → before

thus → so

CALENDAR TIME SHIFTS

today → that day

tonight → that night

yesterday → the previous day

tomorrow → the next day

last night → the previous night

next week → the following week

DEMONSTRATIVE PRACTICE

"I live here" → he lived there

"this book" → that book

"come now" → go then

"these toys" → those toys

"today" → that day

"tomorrow" → the following day

3 Contextual Practice Sentences & Models

1. Direct: Ali said, "I shall complete this assignment today."
2. Indirect: Ali said that he would complete that assignment that day.
3. Direct: She said to me, "You can meet my brother here tomorrow."
4. Indirect: She told me that I could meet her brother there the next day.

EXERCISE A Fill in the Missing Transformation Keys (Write in the Blank)

1. Distance shift: In indirect speech, the word 'this' shifts to '.....'. (that / these)
2. Place shift: In indirect speech, the word 'here' shifts to '.....'. (there / where)
3. Time shift: In indirect speech, 'tomorrow' becomes '.....'. (the next day / yesterday)
4. SON formula check: In indirect speech, third-person pronouns (He, She, They) undergo (no change / shift)

EXERCISE B Match the Term to its Syntactic Law

TODAY → THAT DAY

YESTERDAY → PREVIOUS DAY

HERE → THERE

SON FORMULA

Temporal shift: Present calendar day becomes that day

Temporal shift: Preceding day becomes previous day

Spatial shift: Immediate vicinity shifts to remote location

1st per → Subject | 2nd per → Object | 3rd per → No Change

EXERCISE C Circle the Odd One Out / Error Identification

1. this → that here → there now → then today → tomorrow [ODD Incorrect time shift]
2. yesterday → the previous day tomorrow → the next day last week → the previous week here → here [ODD Proximity not shifted]
3. I → he you → I we → they he → you [ODD 3rd person never changes]

Indirect: Statements & Questions

Assertive Declarations & Interrogative Inquiries (If/Whether & Wh-)

1 The Definition & Transformation Rule

Report declarations and questions with precision! Assertive Sentences: change said to → told, remove quote marks, insert 'THAT', shift pronouns (SON) and step back tense. Interrogative Sentences: change said to → ASKED / ENQUIRED. For Yes/No Questions, bridge with IF or WHETHER. For Wh- Questions, retain the Wh-word, restore [Subject + Verb] order, and replace '?' with a full stop (.)!

KULSUM INSTITUTE TRANSFORMATION PRO-TIP:

"The Inversion Undo: Never keep question order in indirect speech! 'Where do you live?' becomes 'where I LIVED' (Subject before Verb), and throw away the question mark!"

2 Transformation Vault: Comprehensive Models

ASSERTIVE INDIRECT

said → said that said to → told that I am → he was
 I wrote → he had written
 I will → he would

YES/NO (IF / WHETHER)

"Are you ready?"
 → asked if he was ready.
 "Do you play?"
 → asked if I played.
 "Have you seen it?"
 → asked whether she had seen it.

WH- QUESTIONS (RETAIN WH)

"Where do you live?"
 → asked where I lived.
 "Why are you crying?"
 → asked why she was crying.
 "What is your name?"
 → asked what his name was.

PUNCTUATION & SYNTAX LAWS

Never write 'told to'!
 Restore Sub + Verb order
 Remove inverted commas
 Drop question mark (?)
 Place full stop (.) at end
 Apply SON pronoun code

3 Contextual Practice Sentences & Models

1. Assertive: Kabir said to his brother, "I am preparing for the entrance examination." → Kabir told his brother that he was preparing for the entrance examination.
2. Yes/No Question: He said to me, "Are you attending the grammar seminar?" → He asked me if I was attending the grammar seminar.
3. Wh- Question: The teacher said to the student, "Why are you late today?" → The teacher asked the student why he was late that day.
4. Choice Inquiry: She said to Ahmad, "Do you prefer tea or coffee?" → She enquired of Ahmad whether he preferred tea or coffee.

EXERCISE A Fill in the Missing Transformation Keys (Write in the Blank)

1. Assertive reporting verb: 'He said to me' shifts to 'He me that he was ready.' (told / told to)
2. Yes/No question connector: 'Are you coming?' connects with (if / that)
3. Wh- question connector: 'Where is the library?' connects with (where / that)
4. Punctuation at end of indirect question: Always place a (full stop (.) / question mark (?))

EXERCISE B Match the Term to its Syntactic Law
TOLD + OBJECT
IF / WHETHER
WH - RETENTION
SUBJECT + VERB

Assertive reporting verb mutation when followed by a personal listener

Connectors introducing indirect Yes/No auxiliary inquiries

Interrogative words (Why, Where, What) function as connectors

Order restored in indirect speech: verb follows subject

EXERCISE C Circle the Odd One Out / Error Identification

Indirect Speech: Commands, Joy & Prayers

ORDERED (to + V1), EXCLAIMED WITH JOY/SORROW, and PRAYED

1 The Definition & Transformation Rule

Commands, exclamations, and prayers have specialized reporting artistry! Commands & Requests: change said to → ORDERED, REQUESTED, or ADVISED + TO-INFINITIVE (to + V1). Exclamations: change said → EXCLAIMED WITH JOY, SORROW, or WONDER + THAT. Optative Prayers: change said → PRAYED or WISHED + THAT (May God bless you → prayed that God might bless him)!

KULSUM INSTITUTE TRANSFORMATION PRO-TIP:

"The 'FORBADE' Secret: If you use the reporting verb 'FORBADE', it already means 'ordered not to'. Therefore, do NOT add 'not': 'He forbade me TO go' (never 'forbade me not to go')!"

2 Transformation Vault: Comprehensive Models

COMMANDS (TO + V1)

"Open the door."

→ ordered to open

"Study hard."

→ advised to study

"Please help me."
