Welcome to Communicate with Confidence!

A Journey from Understanding to Expressing

Dear Teachers, Parents, and Early Educators,

Welcome to Module 6: Communicate with Confidence! from the Kulsum Institute of Education.

Communication is much more than speaking words. It is the ability to understand what others say, ask meaningful questions, answer clearly, express thoughts and opinions, pronounce words confidently, and participate actively in everyday conversations.

This module has been carefully designed to help young learners move from simple language practice toward real-life communication. Instead of learning English only through memorization, learners will be encouraged to listen, understand, think, respond, speak, and interact.

Inside this module, learners will:

- Ask Questions: Learn how to form and use different types of questions correctly.
- Answer with Confidence: Give short, complete, and meaningful responses.
- Express Opinions: Learn useful phrases for saying what they think and feel respectfully.
- Build Communication Skills: Practice greetings, turn-taking, listening, and polite responses.
- Improve Pronunciation: Work on sounds, word stress, sentence rhythm, and clear speech.
- Develop Comprehension: Read and listen to age-appropriate passages and demonstrate clear understanding.
- Use English in Real Situations: Connect classroom language directly with everyday life.
- Think and Respond: Develop the cognitive ability to produce appropriate, contextual language.

Aligned with our vision to LEARN • GROW • SUCCEED, this module creates a structured pathway from understanding → responding → speaking → communicating confidently.

Let us begin this exciting journey toward confident communication together!

With warm regards,

The Faculty of Early Childhood Development
Kulsum Institute of Education

UNIT 1: ASKING & ANSWERING QUESTIONS

Chapter 1: The Art of Asking Questions

Page 01 • Master Lesson

1. Chapter Introduction

Questions are the key to unlocking curiosity and learning. When young learners ask questions, they actively seek information, solve problems, and make friends. In this chapter, we explore what a question is, why we ask questions, and the basic structural differences between statements and questions.

Learning Objectives: Understand the purpose of asking questions; distinguish between statements and questions; identify basic question punctuation (question mark '?'); form simple inquiries confidently.

2. Definitions & Concepts

What is a Statement? A statement tells us something. It ends with a full stop (.).

Example: The dog is barking.

What is a Question? A question asks us something to get information. It always ends with a question mark (?).

Example: Is the dog barking?

REMEMBER! A sentence that asks something must always end with a question mark ?. Raise your voice slightly at the end of a question!

3. Language Patterns

BASIC QUESTION INVERSION PATTERN

Subject + Helping Verb + Object. (Statement) → Helping Verb + Subject + Object? (Question)

Example Statement: You are ready.

Example Question: Are you ready?

4. Word Bank

Word	Meaning	Example Sentence
Question	A sentence used to ask for information.	I have a question for the teacher.
Curious	Wanting to know or learn something.	The curious girl asked how birds fly.
Answer	A reply to a question.	His answer was completely correct.
Inquire	To ask for information politely.	May I inquire about your name?

5. Model Sentences

- Statement: She is a teacher. → Question: Is she a teacher?
- Statement: They are playing football. → Question: Are they playing football?
- Statement: You like apples. → Question: Do you like apples?

COMMON MISTAKE:

You are going to school?

Are you going to school? (Always place the helping verb before the subject!)

6. Contextual & Dialogue Practice

Rohan: Hello Sara! Are you ready for English class?

Sara: Yes, I am! Do you have your textbook with you?

Rohan: Yes I do. Can I sit next to you today?

Sara: Of course! Let's learn together.

7. Active Review Exercises

1. Add '.' or '?' at the end: (a) Where is my bag __ (b) I love ice cream __
2. Turn this statement into a question: "He is happy." → _____
3. Circle the question word: "Can you help me carry these books?"

QUICK CHECK: Is "You are eating lunch" a question or a statement? How can you turn it into a question?

8. Speaking Challenge & Comprehension

SPEAK IT! Stand up, find a classmate or family member, and ask them 3 questions using "Are you...?" or "Do you...?"

I CAN DO IT! CHECKLIST:

- ☐ I know the difference between a statement and a question.
- ☐ I can spot a question mark (?).
- ☐ I can change a basic statement into a question.

VISUAL VOCABULARY: QUESTION WORDS IN EVERYDAY LIFE

Question

Asking to find out something new.

Curious

Eager to learn and understand.

Answer

Giving information back clearly.

Listen

Paying attention before responding.

Inquire

Asking politely about a topic.

Statement

Telling a fact or an idea.

Chapter 2: Meet the WH Family

1. Chapter Introduction

The "WH Family" consists of special question words used to gather specific details. Instead of simple 'Yes' or 'No' answers, WH-questions encourage open, informative communication. In this chapter, students meet Who, What, When, Where, Why, Which, Whose, Whom, and How.

Learning Objectives: Master the specific role of each WH-word; construct full WH-questions; select the appropriate WH-word for people, places, times, and reasons.

2. Definitions & Concepts

WH Word	Asks About...	Example Question
Who	People	Who is your teacher?
What	Things / Actions	What are you reading?
Where	Places / Locations	Where is the library?
When	Time / Dates	When does the train arrive?
Why	Reasons / Causes	Why are you smiling?
Which	Choices	Which color do you prefer?
How	Manner / Process	How do you bake a cake?

 TEACHER TIP: Use hand gestures for WH-words! Point to your watch for 'When', point around the room for 'Where', and tap your head thoughtfully for 'Why'.

3. Language Patterns

STANDARD WH-QUESTION STRUCTURE

WH-Word + Helping Verb (do/is/can) + Subject + Main Verb + ...?

Example: Where do you live? → Answer: I live in Agra.

4. Word Bank & Model Sentences

- Who: Who won the art competition? (Refers to a person)
- Whose: Whose jacket is hanging on the chair? (Refers to possession)
- How: How was your day at school? (Refers to feeling or state)

COMMON MISTAKE:

 Where you are going?

 Where are you going? (The helping verb 'are' must come before 'you')

5. Dialogue Practice

Ali: Where are you going, Priya?

Priya: I am going to the park. Why don't you come with me?

Ali: What time will you come back home?

Priya: I will return at 5 o'clock when it gets cool.

6. Active Review Exercises

1. Fill in the blank with Who/Where/When: (a) _____ is your birthday? (b) _____ lives in that big house?
2. Match: [Why] → [Location] | [Where] → [Reason] | [How] → [Method]

I CAN DO IT! CHECKLIST:

- ☐ I know all 7 main WH question words.
- ☐ I can choose the right WH word for places, people, and time.
- ☐ I can form a proper WH question.

VISUAL VOCABULARY: PEOPLE, PLACES & THINGS

Who

Refers to people, friends, and family.

What

Refers to objects, ideas, and items.

Where

Refers to places, buildings, and spots.

When

Refers to time, hours, and dates.

Why

Refers to reasons and explanations.

How

Refers to manner, state, or steps.

Chapter 3: Yes/No Questions & Short Answers

1. Chapter Introduction

Yes/No questions are closed questions that require a quick confirmation or negation. Mastering how to ask and answer them politely prevents one-word blunt responses and establishes polite conversation etiquette.

2. Structural Auxiliaries Table

Auxiliary Type	Verbs Used	Example Question	Short Answer
Do Auxiliaries	Do, Does, Did	Do you play chess?	Yes, I do. / No, I don't.
Be Auxiliaries	Am, Is, Are, Was, Were	Is she ready?	Yes, she is. / No, she isn't.
Modals	Can, Could, Will, Should	Can you swim?	Yes, I can. / No, I cannot.

 REMEMBER! Avoid answering with just "Yes" or "No". Adding the auxiliary verb (e.g., "Yes, I do" or "No, I am not") sounds much more confident and polite!

3. Dialogue & Practice

Teacher: Did you complete your reading assignment, Kabir?

Kabir: Yes, I did! It was very interesting.

Teacher: Can you read the first paragraph aloud for the class?

Kabir: Yes, I can gladly do that.

4. Active Review Exercises

1. Complete the short answer: "Is he your brother?" → "Yes, he ____."
2. Change to question: "She can play the piano." → "____ she play the piano?"

VISUAL VOCABULARY: EVERYDAY ACTIONS & ANSWERS

Confirm

Saying "Yes, I do."

Deny

Saying "No, I don't."

Action

Running, jumping, playing.

Chapter 4: Asking Questions About People & Things

1. Chapter Introduction

Describing the world around us starts with inquiring about who people are and what objects belong to whom. In this chapter, we focus on using "Who is...", "What is...", "Whose...", and "Which..." effectively.

POSSESSION & CHOICE PATTERNS

- Whose + Noun + Is/Are This/These? → Whose water bottle is this?
- Which + Noun + Do You Prefer? → Which book do you want to read?

2. Model Sentences & Descriptions

- Who is that tall gentleman? He is our new principal.
- Whose backpack is left on the bench? It is Maya's backpack.
- Which pencil is sharper? The blue pencil is sharper.

⚠ COMMON MISTAKE:

✗ Who's bag is this? (Who's = Who is)

✓ Whose bag is this? (Whose indicates possession!)

VISUAL VOCABULARY: FAMILY, FRIENDS & BELONGINGS

Family

Who are your relatives?

Belongings

Whose bag or pencil is it?

Choice

Which option do you like?

UNIT 2: BUILDING CONVERSATION SKILLS

Chapter 5: Asking About Daily Life

Page 30 • Master Lesson

1. Chapter Introduction

Daily routines form the heart of everyday conversations. Asking friends about their wake-up times, school activities, hobbies, and family dinners builds social connections.

2. Vocabulary & Routine Patterns

Routine Action	Inquiry Question	Sample Response
Morning Routine	What time do you wake up?	I wake up at 6:30 AM every morning.
Breakfast	What do you usually eat for breakfast?	I usually eat porridge and milk.
Leisure / Hobbies	What do you enjoy doing after school?	I enjoy playing badminton in the garden.

Anya: What is your favourite thing to do on weekends, Rahul?

Rahul: I love going riding my bicycle with my father. What about you?

Anya: I enjoy reading storybooks and drawing pictures.

VISUAL VOCABULARY: A DAY IN MY LIFE

Morning

Waking up and eating breakfast.

School

Studying and interacting with peers.

Night

Sleeping and resting for tomorrow.

Chapter 6: Asking for Information

1. Chapter Introduction

Navigating public places—like asking for directions, inquiring about ticket prices, or finding a room at school—requires functional and polite English phrasing.

POLITE INFORMATION INQUIRY PATTERNS

- Excuse me, where is the... ? → Excuse me, where is the main hall?
- Could you tell me how much... ? → Could you tell me how much this notebook costs?

2. Key Situational Phrases

- Directions: "How do I get to the computer lab from here?"
- Time: "What time does the morning assembly begin?"
- Assistance: "Could you please help me find my locker?"

VISUAL VOCABULARY: PLACES AROUND US

Directions

Finding your way around town.

Price

Asking "How much does it cost?"

Schedule

Checking opening and closing times.

Chapter 7: Polite Questions & Helpful Responses

1. Chapter Introduction

Politeness is the mark of a good communicator. Using modal verbs like Could, Would, May, and magic words like Please, Thank You, Excuse Me, and Sorry transforms basic requests into courteous interactions.

Direct Request (Less Polite)	Polite Request (Recommended)
Give me that pencil.	Could you please pass me that pencil?
I want to enter.	May I please enter the classroom?
Move aside.	Excuse me , could I please squeeze past?

REMEMBER! Adding "Please" at the beginning or end of a request instantly shows respect and kindness!

VISUAL VOCABULARY: POLITE COMMUNICATION

Please

Used when asking for something politely.

Thank You

Showing gratitude for help.

Excuse Me

Getting attention respectfully.

Chapter 8: Conversation Starters & Turn-Taking

1. Chapter Introduction

A conversation is like a game of catch! One person throws the ball (speaks), and the other catches it (listens) before throwing it back. Turn-taking ensures everyone gets a chance to speak without interruption.

CONVERSATION FLOW STEPS

1. Start: "Hello! Beautiful day, isn't it?"
2. Maintain: "That sounds interesting! What happened next?"
3. Pass Turn: "What are your thoughts on this?"
4. End: "It was great talking to you! Have a wonderful day."

 TEACHER TIP: Practice passing a small beanbag or ball in class. Only the person holding the beanbag is allowed to speak; others practice active listening!

VISUAL VOCABULARY: SOCIAL SITUATIONS & ACTIVE LISTENING

Greeting

Starting a conversation smoothly.

Turn-Taking

Waiting for your turn to talk.

Active Listening

Nodding and paying full attention.

UNIT 3: EXPRESSING OUR THOUGHTS & OPINIONS

Chapter 9: What Do You Think? — Expressing Opinions

1. Chapter Introduction

An opinion is a personal thought, feeling, or belief about something. Unlike facts, opinions differ from person to person. Learning phrases to share opinions allows young learners to voice their unique perspectives clearly.

2. Opinion Stems

- I think that outdoor games are more fun than video games.
- In my opinion, chocolate ice cream is the best dessert.
- I believe that reading every day makes us smarter.
- I feel that we should keep our playground clean.

REMEMBER! Always support your opinion with a reason using the word because!

Example: "I think art is great because it lets me be creative."

VISUAL VOCABULARY: LIKES, DISLIKES & CHOICES

Preference

What you like best.

Opinion

Your personal perspective.

Reason

Explaining "Why" using 'because'.

Chapter 10: Agreeing & Disagreeing Politely

Page 70 • Master Lesson

1. Chapter Introduction

People do not always see eye to eye, and that is perfectly okay! It is vital to teach children how to express disagreement with courtesy and respect without hurting feelings or causing conflict.

Expressing Agreement	Expressing Respectful Disagreement
I completely agree with you!	I see your point, but...
I think so too.	I have a slightly different opinion.
That is a great point!	I understand, but I feel that...

COMMON MISTAKE:

You are wrong! That idea is stupid.

I see your point, but I think a different way. (Focus on the idea, not the person!)

VISUAL VOCABULARY: FRIENDLY DISCUSSION & RESPECT

Agree

Sharing the same thought.

Disagree

Having a different view politely.

Respect

Valuing other people's ideas.

Chapter 11: Describing Feelings, Ideas & Experiences

1. Chapter Introduction

Emotional intelligence starts with vocabulary. When children can accurately name their feelings—whether happy, excited, nervous, or proud—they can communicate their emotional states and experiences more effectively.

2. Vocabulary Bank for Emotions

Emotion	Meaning	Sentence Context
Excited	Feeling very happy and enthusiastic.	I am excited about our picnic tomorrow!
Nervous	Feeling slightly worried or anxious.	She felt nervous before her speech.
Proud	Feeling pleased with an achievement.	He was proud when he solved the puzzle.

VISUAL VOCABULARY: FEELINGS & EMOTIONS

Happy

Smiling and feeling joyful.

Excited

Full of energy and anticipation.

Proud

Pleased with your hard work.

Chapter 12: Speak About Your Favourite Things

Page 86 • Master Lesson

1. Chapter Introduction

Children love sharing stories about their favourite toys, books, subjects, and foods. This chapter provides structured templates to help them give full, organized short presentations.

PRESENTATION SPEECH FORMULA

1. "My favourite [category] is [item]."
2. "I like it because [reason]."
3. "I usually enjoy it with [person/time]."

Speech Sample: "My favourite book is The Little Prince. My favourite color is sky blue because it looks calm and beautiful. In my free time, I love playing chess with my grandfather because he teaches me smart strategies!"

VISUAL VOCABULARY: MY FAVOURITE THINGS

Game

Sports and play activities.

Food

Delicious dishes and treats.

Book

Stories and learning materials.

UNIT 4: PRONUNCIATION & SPEAKING IMPROVEMENT

Chapter 13: Clear Speech & Sound Practice

Page 94 • Master Lesson

1. Chapter Introduction

Clear articulation ensures that listeners understand your words without confusion. This chapter focuses on mouth position, breath control, and minimal pairs to sharpen pronunciation.

2. Articulation & Minimal Pairs

Sound Pair	Word A	Word B	Mouth Tip
/P/ vs /B/	Pin	Bin	/P/ uses a puff of air; /B/ uses vocal cords.
/T/ vs /D/	Ten	Den	Tap the tongue tip behind front teeth.
/F/ vs /V/	Fan	Van	Top teeth rest gently on bottom lip.

VISUAL DIAGRAM: MOUTH POSITIONS & SOUND PRODUCTION

Lips

Rounding and pressing for sounds like /P/, /B/, /M/.

Tongue

Tapping the roof of the mouth for /T/, /D/, /N/.

Airflow

Controlling breath for smooth articulation.

Chapter 14: Word Stress, Sentence Stress & Rhythm

Page 102 • Master Lesson

1. Chapter Introduction

English is a stress-timed language with a natural musical rhythm. Emphasizing the correct syllables in words and key content words in sentences gives speech clarity and melody.

SENTENCE STRESS PRINCIPLE

Stress CONTENT words (Nouns, Verbs, Adjectives).

Do not stress STRUCTURE words (Articles, Prepositions, Pronouns).

Example: "The CAT RAN up the TREE." (Clap on CAT, RAN, TREE!)

VISUAL PRACTICE: STRESS & MUSICAL RHYTHM

Clap Rhythm

Clapping on stressed syllables.

Melody

Natural pitch changes in speaking.

Emphasis

Making key words louder and longer.

Chapter 15: Tricky Sounds & Common Pronunciation Errors

1. Chapter Introduction

Certain sounds—such as the 'TH' sound, 'R' vs 'L', and silent letters—frequently present challenge for young learners. This chapter breaks down tricky sounds with targeted drill activities.

Tricky Sound	Correct Tongue/Mouth Action	Practice Words
TH (/θ/)	Stick tongue tip slightly between front teeth.	Think, Thank, Three, Bath
R vs L	/R/ curls tongue back; /L/ touches top ridge.	Red / Led, Ring / Ling
Silent Letters	Do not pronounce the hidden letter!	Knee (silent K), Write (silent W)

VISUAL VOCABULARY: TRICKY PHONETICS & PRACTICE

TH Sound

Tongue between teeth for 'Think'.

Silent Letter

Quiet letters like 'K' in 'Knee'.

Clarity

Speaking crisp, distinct sounds.

UNIT 5: COMPREHENSION & REAL-LIFE COMMUNICATION

Chapter 16: Listening & Understanding

Page 118 • Master Lesson

1. Chapter Introduction

Good communication begins with active listening. Listening comprehension requires capturing main points, following multi-step directions, and recalling details accurately.

LISTENING PASSAGE:

"Ankit placed his blue notebook inside his red schoolbag. Then he put his bag next to the front door so he wouldn't forget it in the morning."

2. Passage Comprehension Questions

1. What color was Ankit's notebook? (a) Red (b) Blue (c) Green
2. Where did he place his bag? _____
3. Why did he put it near the front door? _____

VISUAL VOCABULARY: LISTENING SITUATIONS

Focus

Listening without distractions.

Follow Steps

Carrying out instructions in order.

Understand

Grasping the true meaning.

Chapter 17: Reading Comprehension

1. Reading Passage: The Lost Puppy

One sunny afternoon, Maya found a small white puppy shivering near the garden gate. The puppy had brown spots over its left eye. Maya gently picked up the puppy and gave it a small bowl of warm milk. She looked at its collar and saw a phone number. Maya called the owner, who was thrilled to find his lost pet named Spot!

2. Contextual Questions & Vocabulary

- Main Idea: What is this story mostly about?
- Detail Check: Where were the brown spots located on the puppy?
- Vocabulary Context: What does the word thrilled mean in the story?

VISUAL READING PAGE: CONTEXT & STORY ELEMENTS

Passage

Reading text with attention.

Details

Spotting key facts in text.

Main Idea

What the story is about overall.

Chapter 18: Picture Comprehension & Story Talk

Page 134 • Master Lesson

1. Chapter Introduction

Visual literacy allows learners to read pictures, predict outcomes, sequence events, and craft original spoken stories based on illustrated prompts.

PICTURE DESCRIPTION STEPS

1. In the foreground: "I can see..."
2. In the background: "There is a..."
3. Action / Mood: "The children look happy because they are..."

2. Speaking Activity

 SPEAK IT! Look at a picture of a busy park. Describe 4 different actions happening simultaneously (e.g., "A boy is flying a kite," "A girl is feeding ducks").

VISUAL STORYTELLING PAGE: SEQUENCING & IMAGINATION

Observe

Examining details in pictures.

Sequence

First, Next, Then, Finally.

Predict

Guessing what happens next.

Chapter 19: Communication Graduation — Final Review

Page 142 • Comprehensive Master Assessment

Module 6 Complete Communication Assessment

This final assessment evaluates learner growth across all core skill areas developed throughout Module 6.

Assessment Domain	Evaluation Task	Score / Status
1. Asking Questions	Form 3 correct WH-questions from given answers.	☐ Mastered
2. Answering Questions	Provide complete short answers using auxiliaries.	☐ Mastered
3. Expressing Opinions	Share an opinion on "School Uniforms" with a reason.	☐ Mastered
4. Polite Role-Play	Act out asking for directions politely in a store.	☐ Mastered
5. Pronunciation Check	Read aloud minimal pairs (/P/ vs /B/, /TH/).	☐ Mastered
